

The Cathlapotle Plankhouse
www.plankhouse.org

Birdfest & Bluegrass

October 9-10, 2010
Ridgefield, WA

www.ridgefieldfriends.org

Join the Friends of the Ridgefield National Wildlife Refuge for two days of fun in the city of Ridgefield and at the Ridgefield National Wildlife Refuge. For a complete schedule of activities happening in Ridgefield and on the Refuge visit www.ridgefieldfriends.org.

The following is the program schedule for the Cathlapotle Plankhouse:

Saturday, Oct. 9

Flintknapping Demonstrations

12-4pm

With Dennis Torresdal, Vice-President of the Oregon Archaeological Society.

Guided Walk to the Cathlapotle Village Site

10am & 2pm

Visitors gathered for a hike out to the site.

Join an archaeologist as they lead you out to this culturally significant site. This walk will take approximately 2 hours over uneven terrain. Please wear sturdy shoes and dress weather appropriate.

Refuge Archaeology Update

1pm

Archaeologists will speak about the archaeological sites on the Refuge and any updates regarding those sites or new discoveries.

Sunday, Oct. 10

Tribal Journeys, with Sam Robinson

11:15am

Sam Robinson, Vice-Chairman of the Chinook Indian Nation will present the traditions of the tribal journeys that take place each year.

Chinookan Art and Culture, with Tony Johnson

12pm

Tony Johnson, member of the Chinook Indian Nation, is the artist who designed the artwork of the Cathlapotle Plankhouse. He is also a language specialist and the Chair of the Chinook Cultural Committee.

This speaker is sponsored by the Center for Columbia River History.

Traditional Salmon Bake

1-3pm

Samplings of baked salmon and seafood stew will be available as long as samples last. Thank you to our bake coordinators, Greg Robinson, member of the Chinook Indian Nation, and Greg Archuleta, member of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde.

Cathlapotle Plankhouse programs are funded through the generous support of the following:

Photo: Sam Robinson offering a blessing at last year's salmon bake.