Credit Union looks to move

Novel fall members of the Credit Union of Seattle will see the building leased on December 15 by the Federal Reserve Bank. The bank plans to convert the building into a Federal Reserve office.

Times Open House

by CATHY RENER

A sparkling log home as found on the perch at 1200 South 46th Street, the new home of the Times. Open House is at 1:30 today and all day on Sunday.

New center checks land-use decisions

The Central Seattle Community Council, which represents the neighborhood Land-Use Information System, has announced its intention to study land-use decisions affecting the area.

It will monitor the activities of the City Planning Commission and the Seattle City Council, as well as any new or changed land-use decisions that might affect the neighborhood.

DN INC. REPORTS

Retirement Living

Companionship Security Privacy

144 Patio Homes sold. Only 6 chances left to live in Woodcreek!

Woodcreek Condominiums. Bellmead's outstanding two and three bedroom floor plans. Spectacular, private, sunroomed Fireplaces, built-ins, double-pane windows, luxurious carpeting, two car garages with automatic doors, two car garages, pool, recreation center with game rooms, lounge, barbecue and more. Priced from $64,950.

Woodcreek! Fastest above the entrance to Glendeo Country Club... 140th and Main in Bellevue. John L. Scott, Inc. 747-4900.