The Main Street Approach

Main Street™ is a philosophy, a program, and a proven comprehensive approach to downtown commercial district revitalization. This approach has been implemented in over 1,200 cities and towns in 40 states across the nation with the help of the National Main Street Center and statewide downtown revitalization programs.

The success of the Main Street™ approach is based on its comprehensive nature. By carefully integrating four points into a practical downtown management strategy, a local Main Street™ program will produce fundamental changes in a community's economic base:

Organization involves building a Main Street™ framework that is well represented by business and property owners, bankers, citizens, public officials, chambers of commerce, and other local economic development organizations. Everyone must work together to renew downtown. A strong organization provides the stability to build and maintain a long-term effort.

Promotion creates excitement downtown. Street festivals, parades, retail events, and image development campaigns are some of the ways Main Street™ encourages customer traffic. Promotion involves marketing an enticing image to shoppers, investors, and visitors.

Design enhances the attractiveness of the business district. Historic building rehabilitation, street and alley clean-up, colorful banners, landscaping, and lighting all improve the physical image of the downtown as a quality place to shop, work, walk, invest in, and live. Design improvements result in a reinvestment of public and private dollars to downtown.

Economic Restructuring involves analyzing current market forces to develop long-term solutions. Recruiting new businesses, creatively converting unused space for new uses, and sharpening the competitiveness of Main Street's traditional merchants are examples of economic restructuring activities.
The Eight Principles Guiding Successful Downtown Revitalization Programs are:

1. Comprehensive. A single project cannot revitalize a downtown or commercial neighborhood. An ongoing series of initiatives is vital to build community support and create lasting progress.

2. Incremental. Small projects make a big difference. They demonstrate that "things are happening" on Main Street and hone the skills and confidence the program will need to tackle more complex projects.

3. Self-Help. The State can provide valuable direction and technical assistance, but only local leadership can breed long-term success by fostering and demonstrating community involvement and commitment to the revitalization effort.

4. Public/Private Partnership. Every local Main Street™ program needs the support and expertise of both the public and private sectors. For an effective partnership, each must recognize the strengths and weaknesses of the other.

5. Identifying and Capitalizing on Existing Assets. Unique offerings and local assets provide the solid foundation for a successful Main Street™ initiative.

6. Quality. From storefront design to promotional campaigns to special events, quality must be instilled in the organization.

7. Change. Changing community attitudes and habits is essential to bring about a commercial district renaissance. A carefully planned Main Street™ program will help shift public perceptions and practices to support and sustain the revitalization process.

8. Action Oriented. Frequent visible changes in the look and activities of the commercial district will reinforce the perception of positive change. Small, but dramatic, improvements early in the process will remind the community that the revitalization effort is underway.
Criteria for National Designation as a Main Street™ Program

1. Broad-based community support for the commercial district revitalization process with strong support from both the public and private sectors.

2. Vision and mission statements relevant to community conditions and to the local Main Street™ program’s organizational stage.

3. Comprehensive Main Street™ work plan.

5. Active board of directors and committees.

6. Adequate operating budget.

7. Paid professional program manager.

8. Program of ongoing training for staff and volunteers.

10. Current member of the National Main Street Network.

It takes hard work and commitment by a community to become and maintain its designation as a Main Street™ community. Along with this designation comes the honor of permission to use the title "Main Street™". Communities must be evaluated and meet the criteria above to use this title. Evaluation is done yearly, and will be granted only to Main Street™ designation level communities that fully participate in the State's "Tier System".

Call the Washington State Main Street Program at 360-725-4056 for more specific information about Main Street™ criteria, use of the Main Street™ name, or the Tier System.
Why is Downtown Important?

Can malls and discount centers take the place of downtowns in the future? The answer is most definitely no. Though malls and discount centers play important roles in our communities, downtown is much more than a shopping center. It is critical for everyone involved in downtown revitalization to understand the value of downtown. Here are some good reasons why downtown is important (though they’re not in any particular order):

1. Your central business district is a prominent employment center. Even the smallest downtown employs hundreds of people. Downtown is often the largest employer in a community.

2. As a business center, your downtown plays a major role. It may even represent the largest concentration of businesses in your community. It also serves as an incubator for new businesses—the successes of tomorrow.

3. Most of the businesses in your downtown are independently owned. They support a local family who supports the local schools, etc. Independent businesses keep profits in town.

4. Downtown is a reflection of how your community sees itself—a critical factor in business retention and recruitment efforts. When industry begins looking at your community as a possible location, they examine many aspects including the quality of life. Included in quality of life is interest in downtown—is it alive and viable, or does it represent local disinterest and failure?

5. Your downtown represents a significant portion of the community’s tax base. If this district declines, property will decrease in value and subsequently increases the tax burden on other parts of your community.

6. The central business district is an indispensable shopping and service center. Though it may no longer hold the place as your community’s most dominant shopping center, it still includes unique shopping and service opportunities. Attorneys, physicians, accountants, and insurance offices, as well as financial institutions, are often located downtown.

7. Your downtown is the historic core of your community. Many of the buildings are historically significant and help highlight your community’s history.

8. Downtown represents a vast amount of public and private investment. Imagine the costs to recreate all the public infrastructure and buildings already existing in your central business district. Think of the waste of past dollars spent if downtown is neglected.

9. A central business district is often a major tourist draw. When people travel, they want to see unique places. There isn’t a downtown like yours in the world!

10. Downtown is usually a government center. Most likely it is where your city hall, county courthouse, and post office are located. This “one stop” shopping for government services is a notable feature of downtowns across the country.

11. And, perhaps, most important, your downtown provides a sense of community and place. As Carol Lifkind, author of Main Street: The Face of Urban America, said “…as Main Street, it was uniquely American, a powerful symbol of shared experiences, of common memory, of the challenge, and the struggle of building a civilization… Main Street was always familiar, always recognizable as the heart and soul of the village, town or city.”

Revitalization Program Partners

The local downtown revitalization program must involve groups throughout the community to be successful. Different groups have different interests in the downtown. And, while each may have a particular focus, all groups ultimately share the common goal of revitalizing the commercial district. By involving a broad range of constituents in the process, the downtown program can help each group realize that this common goal exists and that cooperation is essential for successful revitalization. Furthermore, by identifying each organization’s greatest strengths, the downtown program can help focus that group’s energy in the areas where it will be most effective and have the most to contribute. Groups typically represented and involved in successful local downtown revitalization programs include:

Retail & Service Sector Business Owners
Retail and service sector activity is an important part of the downtown’s economic base; consequently, business owners have a vested interest in the success of the downtown revitalization program. Retailers are often most interested in, and the most valuable contributors to downtown promotional activities, though their involvement in other downtown activities can also be beneficial.

Property Owners
Since they literally own the downtown, property owners have a direct interest in the downtown program’s success and often become active participants in the revitalization process. Absentee owners, though, may show little or no interest in the program, nonetheless, they should be kept informed about revitalization activities and, as the program develops greater competency in directing downtown’s economic growth, should continue to be invited to take part in its projects.

Chambers of Commerce
The chamber of commerce is an important player in most downtown revitalization programs because of its interest in the community’s commercial development. The chamber can help the downtown program by providing liaison with local and regional economic development agencies, helping businesses expand, recruiting new businesses and sharing information resources. Remember, though, that the chamber must be concerned with community-wide development. Focusing too much on the downtown can contradict its direct mission.

Financial Institutions
Local financial institutions benefit from a revitalized downtown in many ways, from making new business loans to being able to attract new industry to the community. Banks and savings and loans can support the revitalization program by helping package loans, taking part in interest buy down and other financial incentive programs, providing leadership and seeking innovative ways to stimulate downtown economic development. Many financial institutions also find that participation in the local downtown revitalization program helps satisfy their directives under the Community Reinvestment Act.

Consumers
In many ways, consumers stand to benefit the most from a revitalized downtown offering goods and services that meet their needs. Many local consumers who may not belong to an existing community organization will still be interested in participating in the revitalization effort and in helping make the downtown - and the community - a more lively place to be.
City and County Government
Without the support and involvement of local government, it is doubtful that a downtown revitalization program will achieve long-lasting success. Local government can help provide the financial and information resources, technical skills and leadership to the revitalization effort. Because local government plays a major role in directing the community’s economic growth, it must be an active participant in restructuring the downtown’s economic base and developing innovative solutions to downtown issues.

Media
Downtown revitalization means creating new jobs, generating new investments and bringing more money into the community - all newsworthy activities. Thus, the media are usually major supporters of a downtown revitalization effort. In addition to publicizing the local program’s successes, media can provide information about local market characteristics to help the revitalization effort find better ways to meet consumer needs.

Regional Planning Commissions and Councils of Government
These groups can provide the local downtown program with market data and other technical information about the downtown’s market area. They can also help the program identify resources and establish relationships with regional, state and national economic development agencies.

Historic Societies and Historic Preservation Organizations
These groups can contribute expertise in local history, preservation technology and related fields to the downtown revitalization program.

Civic Clubs
By taking part in the revitalization program, civic clubs can help improve the community’s quality of life and make the downtown a more pleasant and vibrant place for community activities.

Schools
Schools can contribute to successful downtown revitalization in several ways. First, by involving young people in the revitalization process, the downtown program can reach a segment of the community that may not be familiar with downtown. Second, they can help students become positive contributors to the community’s quality of life. Finally, by giving students opportunities to use their academic skills in a “real world” environment, they can help the downtown revitalization effort implement programs and activities.

Checklist for Starting a Comprehensive Downtown Program Using the Main Street™ Approach

✓ 1. __ Put together a core committee of people to talk with fellow downtown business and property owners about the idea of forming a downtown organization. Also, talk with the City, Chamber of Commerce, EDC, and other organizations. Gather input and support.

✓ 2. __ Hold a town-hall type of meeting to help educate the public about downtown revitalization. Show the 4-Point slide show. Talk with the local media ahead of time and invite them to attend.

Then, If You Decide to Move Ahead...

✓ 3. __ Identify possible board members and supporters. Create an interim board of directors (5-9 people).

✓ 4. __ Once formed, the interim board should choose a name for the organization. Pick something that is simple, straightforward, and businesslike -- your booklet has samples. Save the "catchy and cute" for a tag line or promotional campaign.

✓ 5. __ Determine your organization's boundaries/primary focus area. Remember it's not an "in or out" issue -- it's a "where should we concentrate our efforts for maximum success". Here's the identifiers the Washington State Main Street Program (WSMSP) uses when helping potential Main Street communities decide. It is...
   a) a traditional central business district and center for socio-economic interaction.
   b) characterized by a cohesive core of historic and/or older commercial and mixed-use buildings representing the community's architectural heritage with compatible in-fill development.
   c) typically arranged with most of the buildings side-by-side and fronting the sidewalk along a main street with intersecting side streets.
   d) compact, easily walkable, and pedestrian-oriented.

✓ 6. __ Draft Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation. Your booklet has samples. The WSMSP will be happy to review them. You might also see if an attorney will take a quick look at them.

✓ 7. __ File as a Washington Nonprofit Corporation with the Secretary of State (www.secstate.wa.gov/corps). Once filed, you will get a Certificate of Incorporation and Unified Business Identifier (UBI) number. At the same time, file a Master Business Application (www.dol.wa.gov/business/file.html).

✓ 8. __ Once incorporated, prepare an agenda and hold an "official" first meeting to: a) adopt bylaws, b) elect officers: president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, c) decide on a fiscal year, d) select a bank and discuss financial arrangements, e) authorize preparation and filing of IRS forms, f) identify an address or post office box for mail, and g) other necessary business. Make sure the new secretary takes minutes.
9. __ File form SS-4 with the Internal Revenue Service to get a Federal Employee Identification Number (www.irs.gov). At the same time, download a 501(c)3 or (c)6 nonprofit designation application packet. Most downtown organizations focusing on the Main Street Approach™ try for a 501(c)3 designation. Suggestion: Seek advice and talk with the WSMSP prior to attempting to fill out the form!

✓ 10. __ Check with the City to see if you need to file anything locally.

✓ 11. __ Reserve an Internet domain name for your organization (www.verisign.com and www.networksolutions.com are two of the largest providers of this service).

✓ 12. __ The board should talk with local insurance agents and purchase appropriate insurance coverage for your organization as soon as possible. Minimally, the board should consider general liability, board and officer liability, worker's compensation, and special events policies.

✓ 13. __ Once the organizational paperwork has been done, hold a goal setting session with board members to create a 12-18 month work plan. Determine a mission statement, goals, and objectives. Put together committees based on the Main Street structure. Have each committee hold an activity brainstorming session to come up with a list of activities to meet their list of objectives (in the beginning, think "quality, effective, low-cost, and doable"). Be realistic in what you can accomplish, but also don't think too "small".

✓ 14. __ Create a draft first-year budget, then seek out funds from supporters.

✓ 15. __ Get press releases out to the media for free publicity. Your booklet has a formatting sample. Don't forget -- letters to the editor are worth gold!

C. Duties of Vice President: In the absence of the President, or his or her inability to act, the Vice President will possess all the President’s powers and discharge all Presidential duties. The Vice President may also sign any checks or documents necessary for KDDA.

D. Duties of the Secretary: The Secretary will record and maintain a full and correct record of the proceedings of KDDA. The Secretary may also sign any checks or documents necessary for KDDA, and will perform such other duties as the Board may from time to time direct.

E. Duties of Treasurer: The Treasurer will maintain in good order all financial records of the Association. The Treasurer may sign checks for the KDDA. At the annual meeting, and at regular Board of Directors’ meetings, the treasurer will provide a report and summary statement on the financial affairs of KDDA.

F. Temporary Officers: In cases of absence or disability of an officer of the Association, the remaining Officers may vote to delegate the powers and duties of such officer to any other officer or member of the Board.

ARTICLE X

Committees

KDDA will have the following standing committees:

KDDA will also have such other committees as the Board of Directors may from time to time establish. Committees will report at least monthly to the Board of Directors. At least one Director will serve on every committee. Committees will be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors. Committees need not be limited in membership to KDDA members, but can have representatives from other relevant areas of the community.
ARTICLE XI
Finances and General Provisions

A. The fiscal year of the Association will begin on the first day of July, and end on the last day of June in each year. On the first year of incorporation, the fiscal year will begin upon incorporation and end on the last day of June.

B. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise authorize, all checks, drafts, and other instruments used for payment of money and all instruments of transfer of securities will be signed by the Treasurer and one Officer, or by the Treasurer and the Executive Director. In the absence of the Treasurer, any two Officers or one Officer and the Executive Director may sign in the place of the Treasurer.

C. Within two months after the close of the fiscal year, the Treasurer will prepare a year-end financial statement showing in reasonable detail the source and application of the previous year’s funds and the financial condition of the Association. This statement will be presented to the Board of Directors at a regular board meeting.

ARTICLE XII
Corporate Seal

KDDA will have no corporate seal.

ARTICLE XIII
Indemnification

A. KDDA may indemnify any Officer or Director, or a former Officer or Director, their heirs or assigns, for any and all judgments, settlement amounts, attorneys fees and litigation expenses incurred by reason of his or her having been made a party to litigation due to his or her capacity or former capacity as Officer or Director of KDDA. KDDA may advance expenses where appropriate. Payments of Indemnification shall be reported at the next annual meeting. The provisions of this section apply to any cause of action arising prior to the adoption of these By Laws also. The rights of indemnification set forth herein are not exclusive.

B. An Officer or Director is not entitled to indemnification if the cause of action is brought by KDDA itself against the Officer or Director, or if it is determined in judgment that the Officer or Director was derelict in the performance of his duties, or had reason to believe his action was unlawful.

C. No Director, trustee or any uncompensated officer of the KDDA will be personally liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for conduct as a Director, trustee, or any uncompensated officer provided that this Article will not eliminate the liability of a Director or any uncompensated officer for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when this Article becomes effective and for any act or omission for which eliminated of liability is not permitted under the Washington Nonprofit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE XIII
Amendments

A. The Board of Directors shall have the power to alter, amend, or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws by a quorum vote at a duly called meeting of the Board, provided that no such action will be taken if it would in any way adversely affect the KDDA’s qualifications under the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax law.

This document is a complete and correct copy of the KDDA’s bylaws, adopted by the Board of Directors on this date, May 3, 2008, and are now in effect.

Potential Funding Sources

CITY GOVERNMENT
City government can be a partner in funding basic operating expenses and often also contributes dollars to specific downtown projects. Basically there are two funding pots from which you can solicit money from city government: the general fund, and special dedicated funds. Within these funds the city government has a certain amount of money that must be allocated for particular projects. For instance one special dedicated fund is made up of money from gas taxes. This money must be allocated to street projects. City dollars can be applied to downtown management, public improvements, public facilities, technical assistance, and possibly promotions.

MEMBERSHIPS
Fees paid for membership to an organization can be a source of funding for most all aspects of downtown revitalization. In order for membership dues to be a strong source of funding for a program, a well-thought-out strategy and campaign must be administered. This form of fundraising is ongoing and can only succeed with a good chair to spur the board on. Follow-through is essential to a good membership campaign.

CORPORATE DONATIONS
Corporate donations may be distinguished from membership dues primarily by the size of contribution. Many corporations have actively supported commercial revitalization efforts through donations of money, services, and equipment. And, most look upon donations to social and economic development causes as investments in the community. Their willingness to give will be directly proportional to their existing or future corporate presence in the community. A corporation will typically evaluate a donation in terms of return on investment (usually in terms of dollars, publicity, human betterment, or economic growth). Look into the Main Street Tax Credit Incentive Program as a way to encourage larger corporate giving to your downtown organization. Visit the Washington State Main Street Program website at: www.downtown.wa.gov and click on “Resources” for details.

PARKING AND BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT AREA (PBIA)
A PBIA is a local self-help funding mechanism authorized by state law that allows businesses and property owners within a defined area to establish a special assessment district. Funds raised can be used to provide management, services, facilities, and programs to the district. Setting up a PBIA requires a lot of effort and time to put together, and are usually very politically sensitive. The WSMSP has a detailed manual available on setting up a PBIA. Call 360-725-4056.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS
Fundraising events are a good source of revenue for downtown management, promotions, public improvements, and public facilities. They differ from special events in that they occur regularly, they are conceived and run like a business, and they are regarded as a business venture by the sponsoring organization. The whole purpose of putting on a fundraiser is to make money, therefore it is critical that goals, plans, and budget are thoroughly worked out, or the fundraiser may end up being much less than profitable.
PRODUCT SALES
A budget can be subsidized by selling products related to the organization, community, or promotion. Some examples of these are t-shirts and sweatshirts, posters, specialized game boards, and bricks for streetscape projects. Product variety is only as limited as the imagination. Before going into special product sales, there must be a well-thought-out plan in place for actually selling the items. Don’t depend on product sales to make ends meet.

SPONSORSHIPS
Sponsorships are a good source of funding for special events and promotions. Suppliers of many of the products used in special events as well as media are willing to donate a portion of their product to be listed as a sponsor of the event. Like corporate donations, potential sponsors evaluate such contributions in terms of return on investment. Businesses seldom sponsor anything from a totally philanthropic viewpoint.

RETAIL FEES
Retail or “In” fees are paid by the primary beneficiaries of a particular promotion or group of promotions. Usually the promotion is thought of, a budget is developed, and then a fee is determined by dividing the total budget by the projected number of participants.

FOUNDATION DONATIONS
Foundation donations are grants given by foundations to aid social, educational, charitable, religious, and other activities which serve the common welfare. Foundations are non-governmental, nonprofit organizations which, primarily through investment of their assets, have produced income that is awarded as grants. Foundations generally have restrictions concerning what they will and will not support. In order to qualify for a foundation grant you must be a tax-exempt organization recognized by the IRS. Foundation grants can be used to fund public improvements, public facilities, technical assistance, promotions, and downtown management depending on the purpose, activities, and area of interest of the foundation.

HOTEL/MOTEL TAX
A hotel/motel tax is similar to sales tax. It is a tax that has been imposed on hotel/motel room rental through a city ordinance. The hotel/motel tax is generally about 4-5% and it falls into the category of a city’s general fund revenue. Often, city government contributes much of their hotel/motel tax to local efforts such as the Chamber of Commerce or Convention Bureau to promote tourism (and thus increase hotel/motel occupancy). Very aggressive downtowns use hotel/motel taxes to fund downtown management, promotions, public improvements, public facilities, and technical assistance.

VOLUNTEERS
Volunteers are an often overlooked means of funding many commercial revitalization projects. Volunteers can provide many services which might otherwise require cash resources well beyond the means of the organization. Volunteers might sell spots in a coordinated advertising campaign; they might provide part-time office help or clerical support; volunteers might help solicit donations and memberships; they might help paint a building or sweep a sidewalk, prepare a financial statement or submit a tax return, design a logo or print the newsletter. Given correct motivation and correct management, volunteers can do almost anything.
SERVICE FEES
Service fees are a common source of funds for many nonprofit organizations, but are not often used in the commercial revitalization field. Service fees might be generated for professional services such as commercial building design assistance, parking management or enforcement, property management, real estate negotiation or packaging, retail promotion packaging, advertising, or business recruitment. Service fees are a dependable and self-perpetuating source of income, but can be deceptive. Many nonprofit organizations have started profit producing services to subsidize their basic mission driven projects, only later to learn that the services were not actually producing income, but sapping the resources of the organization.

SUBSIDY FROM PROFITABLE BUSINESS
A number of very entrepreneurial nonprofit organizations have started for-profit arms to make money and subsidize their basic programs. Examples related to a commercial revitalization effort might include a real estate development company subsidizing a commercial district management nonprofit, or a nonprofit leasing its real estate to for-profit businesses to generate income to support the nonprofit’s activities. Subsidies from profitable businesses can be another source of ongoing and dependable operating support, but should be viewed with similar cautions to income service fees.

Hiring a Downtown Program Manager

- Type of person: YOUNG (in thought), INTELLIGENT (quick to learn), ACTION-ORIENTED (a doer not just a talker), GOOD WITH PEOPLE (the people in your town), TEACHABLE (anxious and willing to learn), HUNGRY (sees the position as an open door to a bigger world, wants that world), ACCEPTABILITY (an appearance and social stature that will allow the manager to be accepted in your community), SAVVY (capable of sizing up people and situations, knowing when to be quiet), CAUSE-ORIENTED (can take on downtown as a personal cause, so that the successes of downtown become personal accomplishments).

- The interview format: One format we’ve seen be successful includes setting up an initial application screening committee made up of 2 to 3 board members (including the president), the city manager or administrator, the chamber president (in most cases, not the executive director), a “well thought of”, savvy downtown business person not on your board, and someone from the financial community or local utility company. Politically, it's important to get some of these people involved in the process. If they help select the manager, they will be more apt to work closely with the manager rather than be antagonistic towards him or her. Have this committee screen applications, select 5-7 of the best ones, check references, and conduct initial interviews. The screening committee's job is to screen the applicants down to the top three potential candidates so the board can take over. The entire board and city manager or administrator should conduct the second interviews and select the top candidate. If you haven't checked all references yet, they should now be checked. Hopefully everything will be on the "up and up" and you can offer the successful applicant the job within a day or two after interviews are over.

- The interview: Remember the applicant's spit and polish always takes center stage during the first interview. By the second, the candidate is considerably more confident and comfortable. An effective way to get past the "polish" is to ask each of the semi-finalists to respond to 2 or 3 essay questions prior to their interview. Questions should be phrased to encourage specific examples of how the applicant has dealt with a situation or organized an activity (i.e. doesn't engender just a statement of personal philosophy). Questions might include:

  1. Give some reasons why a business/property owner should fix up (make an investment in) his/her building.
  2. How would you approach recruiting a new business? What would you anticipate to be the major factors?
  3. Why should we bother with downtown? What makes it worth the time and money we're about to spend?

Look for the "natural" personal characteristics to come through.
A set of standard questions (same for every applicant) should be prepared ahead of time for each interview and allocated to the various team members. These questions should not however, dissuade follow-up questions from anyone during the process.

Following the interview, team members need to rate or make notes about the candidate, and perhaps discuss the interview. Make sure that your comments get to the issues (did I like this person, will our town like him/her, what characteristics did I perceive). Get past the skills and experience.

Interview questions might include:

- If offered the job, when is the earliest you could begin?

A job description, information about your community, and organization (perhaps even a copy of the resource team report) are all worth providing prior to the second interview. Follow-up questions might reference these materials to see how much the candidate picked up about your community, the job and the revitalization approach being taken.

Final selection should be based on consensus. Depending on the size of the group, you won’t make everyone happy. Nonetheless, if the hiring team is not satisfied with their final choices, they need to go back through the resumes and interview further. Do not hire someone you don’t feel very good about!

- Common mistakes that communities make are:

  - Being too hasty in getting a person on board and not waiting for the best person for the job;

  - Hiring someone who is overly skilled in only one area of the Main Street 4-Point Approach™ (design, promotion or economic development), and not being at all skilled with organizational development or other components of the program; and
- Hiring a local who may already have established ties, cliques and biases -- although there are exceptions to the rule, it is usually better for programs in communities with populations over 5,000 to bring in someone from the outside who can take a fresh look at your downtown. The manager should also be willing to establish residency in the community in which they will be working.

Small town programs may find that it doesn’t matter if they hire a local person or someone from out of town. They may also be delightfully surprised at the quality of people who send in applications for the position. In other states, many small town programs who took the time to advertise in local and regional papers have found very qualified people for their part-time positions.

- Advertising strategy: Place an ad in the local paper (all week long...or at least Friday, Saturday and Sunday), the nearest major newspaper (The Seattle P.I., or The Spokesman Review, and possibly The Oregonian). If you are able to give about two months’ lead time, you can also get it in the National Main Street Newsletter and on their website at no cost. The newsletter is circulated to communities all over the country, the website is located at www.mainstreet.org. Many downtown organizations have been successful in "hiring away" experienced full-time managers from other communities using these two methods. Call the National Main Street Center at 202-588-6219 for deadline information. Note that the format for the ad is a little different than a newsprint ad. Call the Washington State Main Street Program at 360-725-4056 for examples.

- Example Timeline: A sample timeline is below. As you can see, finding a competent manager won't happen overnight. So be patient!

  | March 17 - March 31 | Ads in newspapers |
  | April 10*          | Job applications due |
  | April 13 & 14      | Screen applications |
  | April 18           | Check references on those screened down |
  | April 19           | Call 5 - 7 applicants for interviews |
  | April 27 & 28      | Interviews |
  | April 28 & May 1   | Call 3 applicants for second interview |
  | May 8              | Second interview |
  | May 9              | Check all references and make final selection |
  | May 10             | Call successful candidate, then others |

If you advertise in the National Main Street Newsletter, make the application deadline for 2 weeks after it is received in communities.

NEW ASSOCIATION FORMS TO REVITALIZE DOWNTOWN KRUPPOPOLIS

Individuals from within the Kruppopolis business community are banding together to improve the atmosphere, appearance, and mix of businesses in downtown Kruppopolis.

Doug Thompson, an early proponent of the group, believes there will be widespread support for this new organization. “The organization will be instrumental in defining what our community wants to see happen to our historic downtown area, and how we can improve it. We want to build on its uniqueness and see what we can do to enhance the charm, and bring businesses and shoppers back.”

A group of 9 people from within the community have already volunteered to serve as interim board members until the first annual meeting. Selecting officers, writing bylaws, and determining a budget are some of the first organizational tasks the group will undertake.

The group will use the “Main Street Approach” to downtown revitalization which has been used successfully in over 1,600 communities across the country. Its focus is in four areas: organization, promotion, design, and economic restructuring. Some of the activities the organization might undertake include strengthening the mix of businesses, preserving the historical characteristics of downtown buildings, making the core area more pedestrian-friendly, business recruitment and retention, and coordinating promotional events throughout the year.

A town hall meeting to talk further about the “Main Street Approach” and a formal presentation will be given on Thursday, March 2 at the Kruppopolis Community Center. Downtown business and property owners and interested community members are encouraged to attend. The presentation is scheduled to last about an hour beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Ideas For Downtown Revitalization Program Names (taken from around the country):

- Webster Downtown Association
- Roseville Downtown Partnership
- Vista Downtown Development Association
- Downtown Gadsen, Inc.
- Harlan Downtown Revitalization Program
- Heart of Tyler Downtown Program
- Dallas City Center, Inc.
- Gailsburg Downtown Council
- Downtown Kingsport Association
- Mountain Grove Central Business District Association

Try to avoid being "too cute" or "too creative" in forming your organization's name. Instead, save that for a promotional slogan! The name you choose should be pretty straightforward and businesslike.

Also, please note that only communities meeting criteria issued by the National Main Street Center and certified by a state program may use the words Main Street™ in their name. For additional information, see page 3.

Developing Action/Work Plans for Downtown Revitalization Programs Using the Main Street Approach™
Elements of Action Plans

Mission Statement: The mission statement has one clear and simple message; it states the purpose of the organization.

Example: The purpose of the Kruppopolis Downtown Development Association is to develop and promote a healthy and prosperous downtown within the context of cultural and historic preservation.

Goals: The goals are more specific statements of purpose, which can be clearly divided into a committee structure. Usually it is best for each committee to have only one goal. This goal should reflect the general purpose or mission of the committee.

Example: Goal for the Board of Directors and Organization Committee - Provide effective centralized management of the downtown and increase involvement in the program.

Example: Goal for the Promotion Committee - Promote the downtown as the community's social, cultural, and economic center.

Example: Goal for the Design Committee - Encourage visual improvements through good design compatible with historic features.

Example: Goal for the Economic Restructuring Committee - Strengthen and broaden the economic base of downtown.

Issues: Issues are typically classified as “problems” or “unmet opportunities”. They are not usually focused on just one activity, but tend to be more broad, encouraging a number of possible activities.

Example: There aren’t enough things for kids to do downtown.

Objectives: Objectives are specific statements of how a goal will be reached. They usually outline the major areas of responsibility for committees. Objectives give structure to the numerous activities undertaken and help explain why a specific activity has been chosen. Objectives are usually issues that have been turned into positive action statements. Objectives might also be measurable.

Example: Provide [at least two] more activities for children in downtown.

Activities: Activities are specific projects that have an identified timeframe. When completed, they are usually recognized as tangible accomplishments, such as an Easter parade or building inventory.

Tasks: Tasks are specific steps required to complete an activity.
Developing Workable One to Two Year Action Plans

Step 1. Goal setting / work plan session for Board of Directors (plan 4 to 5 hours to complete).
- List issues at random.
- Determine what area of concentration each issue fits under (organization, promotion, design, economic restructuring, and possibly parking). Group them together, and then delete duplicates. Note that the areas of concentration are reflective of the Main Street™ committee structure.
- Determine priorities. Remove the rest of the issues.
- Create objectives. Each objective statement should begin with an action verb.
- Create a goal statement for each committee based on the objectives—the organization "stuff" usually falls to the board or a subcommittee of the board.
- Create an overall mission statement to guide the organization, use the committee goal statements as a reference (if a mission statement has already been created, check it against the committee goals to see if it is still reflective of what the organization is working towards accomplishing).

Step 2. The Board of Directors should come up with a list of potential committee members based on the objectives for each committee.

Step 3. Committee "activity planning" brainstorming session (takes about 2 hours per committee).
- List possible activities under each objective.
- Determine priority activities for each objective.

Step 4. Committee "action planning" session (takes 2 or 3 hour-long meetings to complete).
- Discuss possible timelines for each priority activity (i.e. when should this be started and how long will it take from beginning to end).
- Complete an “action plan” for each priority activity in which planning will need to begin within the next two-three months.
- Fill out a “timeline” sheet. Put all priority activities from the committee somewhere on the form. Think about what the workload will mean for those implementing activities -- is it realistic? Adjust as needed. The Board of Directors should approve the finished timeline.

Step 5. Refer back to your completed timeline sheet at each committee meeting. The committee or task force responsible for an upcoming activity should fill out an “action plan” as each activity draws nearer. If the activity has a completion deadline, scheduling from the deadline backwards may prove useful. Plan for "Murphy's Law"!

66. Conduct a downtown market analysis to better understand your customers and to help identify their needs. Gather census information on your community and trade area. Also, conduct “focus groups”.

67. Meet with area realtors. Let them know what Main Street’s goals are, especially in relation to downtown properties.

68. Stay informed. Budget for professional development opportunities, such as downtown revitalization conferences. Develop a library with downtown revitalization information that can be used by volunteers, businesses, and the community in general.
69. Complete an inventory of buildings and businesses in the downtown area. Include size, ownership, cost to rent, and availability.

70. Encourage businesses to extend store hours so employees can shop on their way to or from work. Also, establish uniform hours for downtown stores.

71. Develop educational programs to address the needs of your downtown businesses.

72. Get information out about free or low-cost business assistance that could benefit downtown business owners.

73. Stay on top of downtown vacancies. Be prepared to share information about them with business prospects. Use your completed market analysis to develop a business retention, expansion, and recruitment strategy.

74. Renovate upper floors of buildings for services, office space, or housing.

75. Send copies of event posters, brochures, photos, slides, newsletters, and other things you’ve been successful with to the Washington State Main Street Program, PO Box 42525, Olympia, Washington, 98504. We want to include your downtown revitalization successes with others. And, there are so many opportunities for us to do this — when making slide show presentations, at workshops, when responding to resource library requests, and during telephone consultations.
